

The point of this ad is to point to the point when George W. Bush became George W. Bush.

And that's the point!

Every human life begins at conception. Even if you're the President of the United States, you can't change that fact.

Ending an innocent human life is murder. Even if you call it abortion, you can't change that fact.

To be President of all the people, you have to show compassion for the smallest of people. And the time to start is now.

There is a point when every human life becomes precious.
And that's the point of creation.
