- Alliance for Girls wrote a blog on “What would have been the anniversary of Roe v. Wade” in January of 2023 and mourned the Dobbs v. Jackson decision. One of the quotes from this post says: “By criminalizing abortion and pregnancy outcomes, these bans contribute further to criminalizing women, girls, nonbinary folx, trans men, and intersex people, especially those of color, for making the personal choice that is best for them.”
- They also acknowledge their participation with and support of Planned Parenthood of Mar Monte and other pro-abortion groups.

- On their “What We Do Page,” Alliance for Girls emphasized their work with gender-expansive youth. They made it a point to define what gender-expansive youth includes: “The binary doesn’t serve anyone. When we say girls, we are referring to gender-expansive youth (cis girls, trans girls, non-binary youth, gender non-conforming youth, gender queer youth and any girl-identified youth).”
