- This article published on June 27, 2023, uncovers that Senate staffers reported that CRS recently attempted to confuse and mislead senators about African bishops and their supposed “unopposed” opinions towards a pro-abortion AIDS relief program pushed by the US through the Biden Administration.

- “While CRS strictly adheres to the teachings of the Catholic Church, and our main partners are local parishes and dioceses throughout the world, we work with other agencies who are not always aligned with Catholic teaching.”

- “Lutheran World Relief, JHPIEGO, Save the Children, and Mercy Corps are a few of these organizations. Such partnerships are win-win because they allow for a more holistic approach to development, with each organization bringing their special expertise to ensure the best results.”
- Examples of two of these organizations and why CRS shouldn’t work with them as a Catholic organization:

- While investigating pro-abortion/pro-contraception group, CARE International, ALL discovered that CARE Int. recently gave over $2 million dollars in cash grants (FY 2021 990) to Catholic Relief Services. While they state their grant money went to CRS’s Water and Climate Justice relief, they have a relationship with a very pro-abortion/pro-contraception group ($620,713 to CRS and $2,300, 597 to CRS USCCB).
