The above link is an article about Christian and Muslim parents in the UK who are protesting sexual education taught to their young children:

Barnabas Fund launched Your Child. Your Choice on 4 March and called on its supporters to urgently email the Lords Committee with their concerns and to urge Peers to debate a law that will impose relationships and sex education on children as young as four-years-old and sweep aside parents' rights to withdraw their children from such lessons.

The response to ALL from CEO Jeremy Frith is below:

Thank you for your email. At Barnabas Aid we don't get involved with or comment on the issues [abortion, contraception, LGBTQ+ lifestyle] you listed, this is not part of our remit as an aid agency for persecuted and suffering Christians. Our statement of faith can be found here:
