

Operation Smile

Stance on Life Issues

<https://www.operationsmile.org/corporate-partnerships>

Johnson & Johnson is one of Operation Smile's major corporate sponsors. Johnson & Johnson came out with a statement in response to Dobbs in 2022 and said, "We also believe health care decisions are best determined by individuals in consultation with their health care provider." Johnson & Johnson also provides travel costs to their employees for abortions.

Before officially joining Operation Smile, Kristie Magee Porcaro worked at Community Counseling Service Fundraising in New York for five years. At CCS, Kristie helped with campaigns for UNICEF, Doctors Without Borders, Pace University, and the Archdiocese of New York.

Operation Smile has not responded to our several attempts to learn more about their partnership with Johnson & Johnson and to inquire if they have a stance on the life issues.
