Barnabas Aid

SEX EDUCATION

- From an article about Christian and Muslim parents in the UK who are protesting sex programs taught to their young children:

Barnabas Fund launched Your Child. Your Choice on 4 March and called on its supporters to urgently email the Lords Committee with their concerns and to urge Peers to debate a law that will impose relationships and sex education on children as young as four-years-old and sweep aside parents' rights to withdraw their children from such lessons. ...These subjects ... [deprive] the parents of their rights to choose whether their child is taught these subjects.

NOTEWORTHY

- In response to ALL's inquiry, CEO Jeremy Frith states:
